

I am disturbed to hear that the FCC is considering making changes to the NJ Do Not Call law and thereby weakening that same law. I personally have been very pleased in the reduction of unwanted telephone calls to my home, at the most inconvenient moments and do not wish to see this law tampered with and certainly not made less stringent.

Thank you.

Respectfully,

C. Carey